

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction Radha S. Hegde	I
PART I: Configuring Visibilities
1 Seeing Princess Salma: Transparency and Transnational Intimacies Susan Ossman	21
2 Constructing Transnational Divas: Gendered Productions of Balkan Turbo-folk Music Zala Volčič and Karmen Erjavec	35
3 The Gendered Face of Latinidad: Global Circulation of Hybridity Angharad N. Valdivia	53
4 E-Race-ing Color: Gender and Transnational Visual Economies of Beauty in India Radhika Parameswaran	68
PART II: Contesting Ideologies
5 Gendered Blueprints: Transnational Masculinities in Muslim Televangelist Cultures Nabil Echchaibi	89
6 Transnational Media Wars over Sex Trafficking: Abolishing the “New Slave Trade” or the New Nativism? Felicity Schaeffer-Grabiel	103
7 “Recycling” Heroines in France: Coutured Identities and Invisible Transitions Julie Thomas	124
8 Celebrity Travels: Media Spectacles and the Construction of a Transnational Politics of Care Spring-Serenity Duvall	140

PART III: Capital Trails
9	Objects of Knowledge, Subjects of Consumption: Persian Carpets and the Gendered Politics of Transnational Knowledge Minoo Moallem 159
10	Spaces of Exception: Violence, Technology, and the Transgressive Gendered Body in India's Global Call Centers Radha S. Hegde 178
11	Maid as Metaphor: Dagongmei and a New Pathway to Chinese Transnational Capital Wanning Sun 196
12	Dial "C" for Culture: Telecommunications, Gender, and the Filipino Transnational Migrant Market Jan Maghinay Padios 212
PART IV: Technologies of Control
13	Digital Cosmopolitanisms: The Gendered Visual Culture of Human Rights Activism Sujata Moorti 231
14	Doing Cultural Citizenship in the Global Media Hub: Illiberal Pragmatics and Lesbian Consumption Practices in Singapore Audrey Yue 250
15	Gendering Cyberspace: Transnational Mappings and Uyghur Diasporic Politics Saskia Witteborn 268
16	Ladies and Gentlemen, Boyahs and Girls: Uploading Transnational Queer Subjectivities in the United Arab Emirates Noor Al-Qasimi 284
	About the Contributors 303
	Index 309